

From Body for Life

"What if I promised to be your "Success Coach" for every step of the process, helping discover your true potential, helping you stay on track, helping you avoid setbacks, and basically doing anything and everything I can to help you achieve your objective?"

(Would this be a good staff role at COTS?)